

Contest Rules Violation Notification Form

Instructions

Complainant must be a current individual NABBA member in good standing. Complainant must sign this form. This form is deemed submitted only when it has been delivered to the NABBA contest controller via email to controller@nabba.org. Forms may only be submitted during the designated dates of the contest as listed on the contest link at NABBA.ORG, with the forms not be accepted after Midnight the Sunday of the designated contest weekend. Any other means of delivery shall not be deemed a valid submission method and the form will not be evaluated. All forms are reviewed by the NABBA contest controller. The Contest Controller has final and absolute authority regarding the timing of controller response to violation notifications, all penalties, appeals, interpretation of the contest rules posted at NABBA.org, and conduct of the Championships.
