

NABBA 2023 will soon be here. Do not miss out!

NABBA's back 2.0! Championships will once again be held in the Southeast region, in the famous "Rocket City" at the Von Braun Center in Huntsville, Alabama. 2022 brought the long-anticipated return of the largest brass event in North America. For 2023, we continue this "new tradition," bigger than ever.

The dates for the 2023 Championships are April 21-22, 2023. Mark your calendar for next year as well, to be held in Huntsville, April 5-6, 2024.

NOW IS THE TIME TO REGISTER!

Again this year, all Partner registration can be handled online at <https://nabba.org/partners/> Every group that will be a vendor should register and pay by April 5, 2023. This includes in-kind sponsors, nonprofits and those only buying an advert in the program.

Payments will be invoiced directly to your preferred contact. After completion of your registration and payment of your invoice, we will reach out to your group about logistics of setting up in the vending area.
